

SGI PRESIDENT IKEDA'S MAY 3 POEMS

SGI President Ikeda composed the following poems in commemoration of May 3, Soka Gakkai Day, and dedicated them to the youth division members.

*A new era has at last arrived
Stand up, my young successors,
And lead the way to victory!*

*The time has come,
The time has finally come,
For you, my young friends,
To take your place on the grand stage
And create a glorious new era!*

*Strive for the completion
Of the magnificent castle of kosen-rufu,
And give your all to fulfilling
The profound pledge you made
In the remote past.*
