

Q&A WITH SUA

Send in your own questions, and we'll share the answers!

Question:

Does SUA, Aliso Viejo have an age limit/restriction?

Answer:

No. SUA does not discriminate on the basis of age. However all students must live on campus in the residence halls, and SUA is not able to provide family housing.

Question:

Can I go to SUA, Aliso Viejo part-time?

Answer:

No. SUA will be offering only the full-time liberal arts program when we open in Fall 2001. Eventually we may be able to offer other opportunities, but first our primary focus is on the new undergraduate program firmly established.

Question:

Does SUA, Aliso Viejo require the TOEFL test for international students who graduate from US high schools?

Answer:

No. The TOEFL is required for all non-native speakers of English who have not graduated from U.S. high schools.

Question:

What other languages besides Chinese, Japanese and Spanish will SUA offer in the future?

Answer:

SUA, Aliso Viejo will increase language offerings as student enrollment increases. SUA will take student interest into consideration in determining what future languages to offer.

If you have questions of any kind about SUA, please send them to SUA at either admission@soka.edu or info@soka.edu. We will use this World Tribune column to share our answers with others who might have the same questions.